Rev. Mugwanga Luvumu David,
Headteacher

A combination of high quality school management leadership, good management systems, discipline, smartness and good academic performance; has triggered fresh demand for service being rendered by a Uganda government Aided cum Church of Uganda – empowered secondary school named: KIRINYA CHURCH OF UGANDA SECONDARY SCHOOL in Wakiso District, Uganda – Africa

Special Life Team, spent three (3) quality years (2016 – 2019) monitoring the school activities, interactiveness and praise worthiness.

We proudly associate with the school and feel honoured to articulate some of the untold good news invested in the school establishment since 2015.

In our publication dated 24 July 2019, we focused on the school development programs limited to 2000 words only. The authorship did not keep our audience fully abreast with the kind of professionals and/or personalities propelling KIRINYA CHURCH OF UGANDA SECONDARY SCHOOL; from strength to glory.

We have proven knowledge that a human resource is key to the transformation of other available resources. It is our humble request that you read herein, some of the particulars of professionals determined to make KIRINYA CHURCH OF UGANDA SECONDARY SCHOOL an establishment designed to effectively and efficiently serve communities in Uganda, Africa and beyond.

Some of the teachers at KIRINYA CHURCH OF UGANDA SECONDARY SCHOOL have had the privilege to teach international students in Europe, Asia and beyond. The commitment of these teachers to work in Uganda and serve their mother land is what should be preached to generations (young and the elderly).

It should also enable relevant stakeholders understand the strength and meaning of humility in the contexts of; Patriotism, Volunteerism and Professionalism.

BRIEF BACKGROUND:

KIRINYA CHURCH OF UGANDA SECONDARY SCHOOL was established in 2009 with two (2) students and by the end of the year it had eighty (80) students. There were eight (8) teachers by then.

The Church of Uganda, Namirembe Diocese is the Foundation Body. The major aim of the church was to instill Christian values and principles in the community, children and also to help the less privileged children access education.

In 2010, the Government of Uganda took over the school as a Government Aided school under Universal Secondary Education program. Mrs. Simunyu Berna was the first Headteacher.

In 2015, KIRINYA CHURCH OF UGANDA SECONDARY SCHOOL got a new Headteacher Rev. Mugwanga Luvumu David and by then the student's population had risen to four hundred (400) students and thirty eight (38) teachers.

VIBRANT PERSONALITIES:

KIRINYA CHURCH OF UGANDA SECONDARY SCHOOL is blessed with some vibrant personalities whose interactiveness with communities would rapidly transform the world to a better place than we ever visualized. It was a honoured moment for our community-friendly Team to interface with the Headteacher Rev. Mugwanga Luvumu David, The Deputy Headteacher Ms. Suubo Susan and others to be recognized herein below.

This segment of our authorship is designed to keep you fully abreast with the professionals you entrust to educate and keep safe your children. Special Life Team, interfaced with Rev. Mugwanga Luvumu David at the school premises, on Friday 26 July 2019, between 11:30 hrs and 16.00 hrs. It was one of the most interesting and interactive sessions ever to be handled by our team in the East Africa Region.

He streamlines the word of God in nearly every discussion and/or activity at hand. He is a crowd puller, with original techniques to motivate and keep his audience in need of more divine guided flow of inspirational words.

He walks with respect for everyone nearby and his management techniques include walking/reaching out to enhance team work among students and teachers alike. His ability to mobilize is not questionable.

TOUR AND TRAVEL:

Rev. Mugwanga Luvumu David, has visited many countries in and beyond Africa. He visited Kenya 2002, Nigeria 2005, The UK 2009, and Japan 2010.

“Being a Bishop’s Chaplain we travelled across Uganda and beyond,” explains Rev. Mugwanga Luvumu David.

MARRIAGE

Rev. Mugwanga Luvumu David got married to Rev. Oliver Luvumu in 1999. “My wife plays the role of my mother, friend and a special companion,” explains Rev. Mugwanga Luvumu David.

His marriage happened after a sad moment presented by the demise of his mother in 1994.

“My mother Elizabeth Nansubuga Luvumu passed on in June 1994. It was the very sad point of my life.” explains Rev. Mugwanga Luvumu David.

HOW HE JOINED KIRINYA SECONDARY

Rev. Mugwanga Luvumu David was very reluctant to join the main stream-National teaching structures and systems as preaching the word of God required much of his time then.

“Bishop Elia Paul Luzinda Kizito of Mukono Diocese pestered me for three years to be allocated leadership of a school but I declined on many occasions,” explains Rev. Mugwanga Luvumu David.

He finally accepted the offer in 2010 and he was promptly posted to Namataba Secondary School in Mukono District. After 4 years at Namataba Secondary School; Mrs. Mary Nteete Gunteese, the Commissioner Secondary, Ministry of

V.I.P reception in Tokyo 2010

Education and Sports, decided to post him to Kirinya Church of Uganda Secondary school.

“I was brought here to establish harmony and create structures and management systems with a difference,” explains Rev. Mugwanga Luvumu David.

Additionally, “taking responsibility at Kirinya meant crossing Mukono Diocese to Namirembe Diocese.”

HIS WEAKNESSES

- He takes long to forget someone who has made mistakes.
- He is always tough on people who misbehave.
- He is too much of a perfectionist.
- At recruitment of new leaners, Rev. Mugwanga Luvumu David emphasizes so much on smartness.

HIS STRENGTHS

- He has the ability to quickly forgive once an apology has been made.
- He rewards those who do the right things at the right place and the time.
- As a result of being more of a perfectionist, many students now do the right things at the right time. For example keeping the school compound smart and being smart themselves.
- He uses the word of God to preach peace, disseminate peace and consolidate the products of peace.

ROLE MODEL

Rev. Mugwanga Luvumu David says “My role model is the Late Archbishop Livingstone Mpalanyi Nkoyoyo. He inspired me in many Godly ways”

Ms. Suubo Susan
Deputy Head teacher In-charge Of Academics

I am from Luuka district, Busoga region in Uganda. I was born to Mr. Namungalu Magemeso and Ms. Namwase Angelica in 1972 at Budini Hospital in Kaliro district. We are six children. I am happily married with two children.

I did my primary school in Kiswa primary school- Kampala, Bukoyo secondary school - Iganga and joined Makerere University for Bachelor of Arts degree in Education between 1993 - 1997. Later I did a Master degree in Education foundations (Administration and planning) between 2002 to 2008 at Makerere University.

I have done short term courses at the Aids Information Centre 2008, Mildmay International 2001 and THETA UGANDA 2007 where I was trained to handle children infected and affected with HIV /AIDS. I also did a post graduate diploma in Special Needs Education between 2011 to 2012 at Kyambogo University to be able to support students professionally and a multitude of them have benefited.

I have travelled broadly in Uganda and also visited Kenya especially the spectacular Taita Hills and Mombasa Coast in December 2017.

In my teaching experience of twenty years, God has enabled me handle a number of children from less privileged families as the memories of the hard times of my childhood inspire me to counsel and motivate them into great citizens.

As Deputy Headteacher, God has guided and enabled me to listen, share and advice students with challenges everyday whether big or small as long as I impact their lives. This has been under the guidance of Rev. Mugwanga Luvumu David.
