

Former Leader of the Gambia Yahya Abdul- Aziz Jemus Junkung Jammeh (Internet Image)

We humbly request the continent AFRICA and countries thereof to embark on very strict and proper management of State resources not limited to State secrets alone. Heads of State(Present or Deposed) are very Unique World Resources. They should be well monitored, protected, facilitated and engaged for the good of DURABLE PEACE. LOVE, FORGIVENESS, and MERCY must lead the way ALWAYS.

AN EYE ON THE GAMBIA

THE GAMBIA should firmly FOCUS on how to effectively transform the HUGE-GIFT of political WEAKNESSES into STRENGTHS for the good of NATIONAL PROSPERITY, DURABLE PEACE, NATIONAL PRIDE, and HOLISTIC DEVELOPEMENT of the GAMBIA on the one part and AFRICA on the other.

The former president Yahya Abdul- Aziz Jammeh should be allowed to return home as long as he is ready to APOLOGIZE, RECONCILE and LEAD A NON POLITICAL Lease of LIFE.

JAMMEH'S 1994-2017 ugly Leadership techniques and management should be realistically reviewed with every BOLD mistake transformed into meaningful strength.

- The GAMBIA should swiftly review the MULTIPLE RISK associated with keeping the former president in EXILE as opposed to the goodness of keeping him as a free man in the Gambia. Every head of state (present or deposed) is the life long custodian of STATE SECRETS which could readily be converted into a HUGE personal progress yet at the PERIL of the Innocent NATION STATE

- The president of the Gambia, H.E Adama Barrow should consider that the former president Yahya Jammeh is well Facilitated with monthly income support and necessary family upkeep in order to delete Unnecessary Regrets.

- The tradition of Locking up Heads of State and / or Handing them over to International Legal establishments could easily Jeopardize the well being of STATE SECRETS any where in Africa and maybe beyond.

Keeping former Heads of state in Prison or exile might not also propel the desired ingredients of UNITY, ONENESS. RECONCILIATION , DURABLE PEACE & NATIONAL PRIDE.

We should understand that most of these Leaders have had very admirable Vision but along the way they crosscut with wrong and unfaithful state Advisors.
